

Academic Integrity at UCF

College of Engineering and Computer Science
Graduate Student Orientation

Jennifer Wright, Program Manager
Student Conduct and Academic Integrity
227 Ferrell Commons 407-823-4683
<https://scai.sdes.ucf.edu/>

Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities
Division of Student Success and Well-Being

Trends of Graduate Student Behavior – Academic Misconduct

- Use of Unauthorized Websites to Complete a Graded Assignment or Exam
- Unauthorized Collaboration with Other Graduate Students to Complete a Graded Assignment or Exam
- Use of Communication Apps to Receive Assistance with the Completion of a Graded Assignment or Exam
- Paying a Website (Contract Cheating) to Assist with the Completion of a Graded Assignment

Student Conduct and Academic Integrity

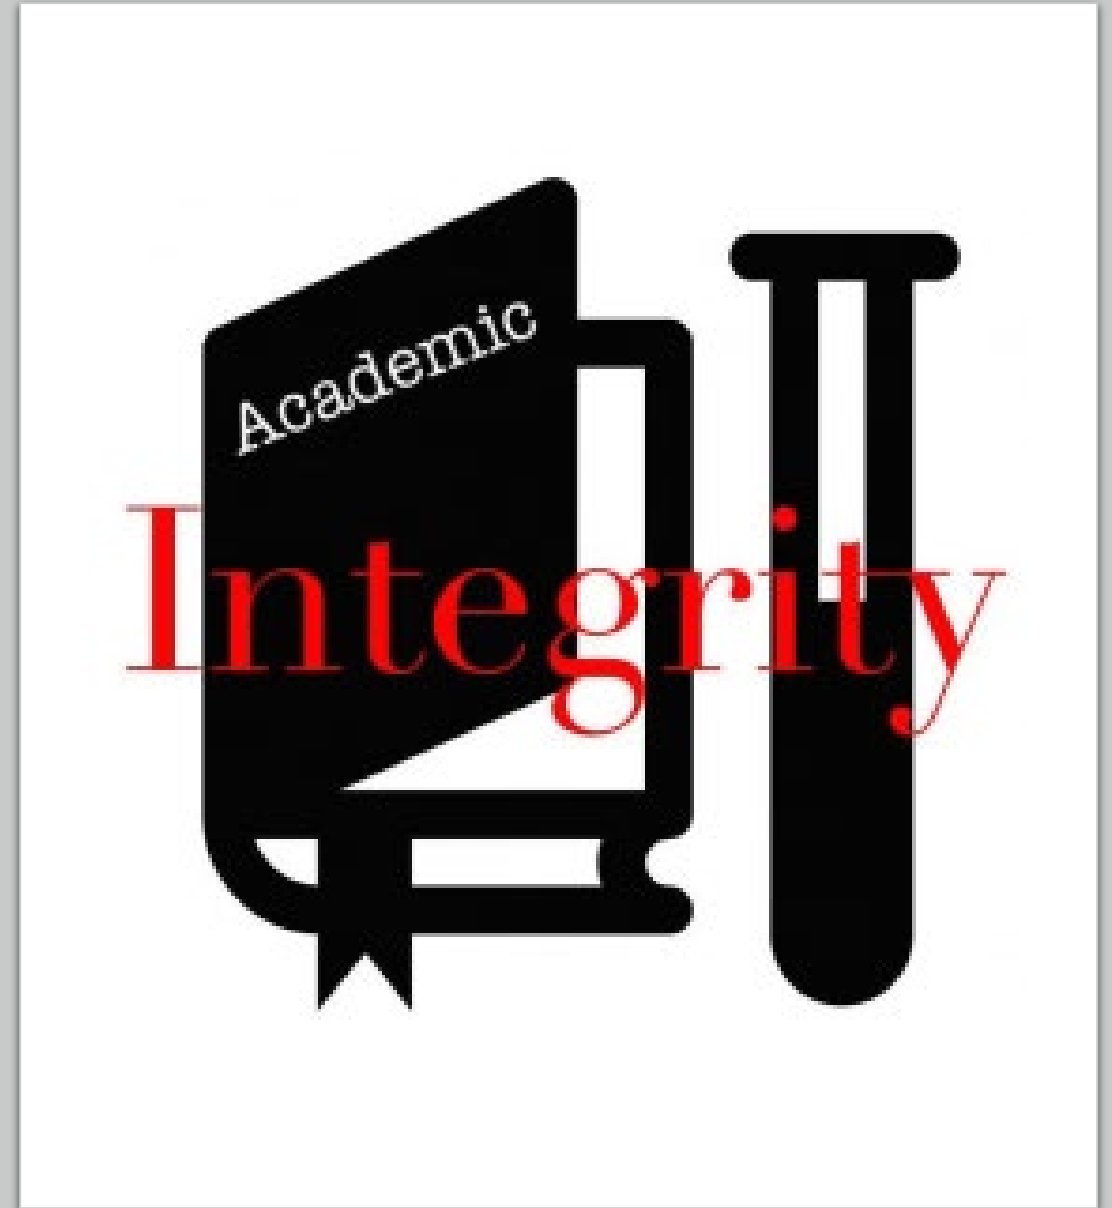

- Student Conduct and Academic Integrity receives incident reports regarding student behavior in association with potential violations of a Code(s) of Conduct.
- If a student is found in-violation of academic integrity, the potential outcome could be:
 - Disciplinary Warning
 - Disciplinary Probation
 - Deferred Disciplinary Suspension*
 - Disciplinary Suspension (separated from the University)*
 - Disciplinary Dismissal (separated from the University for 2-7 years)*
 - Disciplinary Expulsion (permanent separation from the University)*

*A “Z” Designation Will Be Placed on Transcript

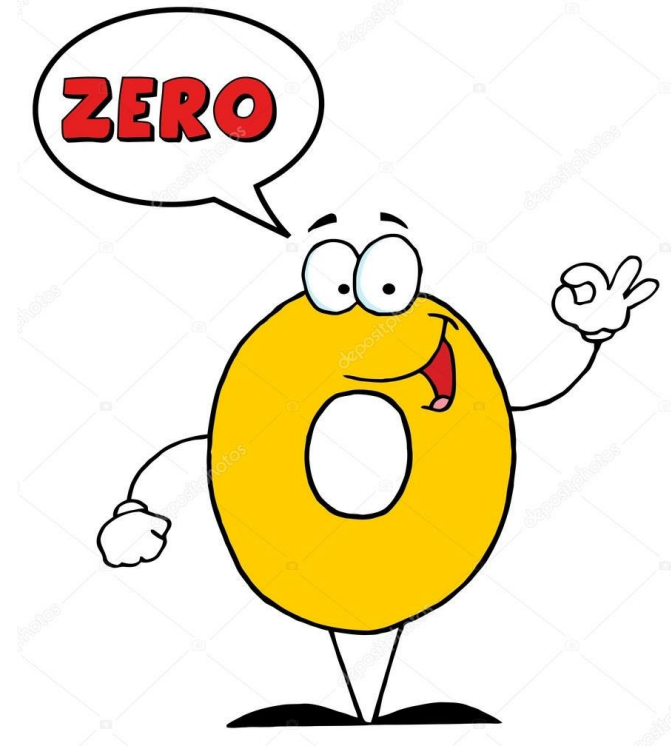

Potential Consequences of Being Found In-Violation of Academic Integrity

- A reduction in points for the assessment
- A zero on the assessment
- An “F” in the course
- Dismissal from Graduate Program

TAKE THE ZERO

Available for Zoom and In Person Appointments

Jennifer Wright, Program Manager

Jennifer.Wright@ucf.edu

Student Conduct and Academic Integrity
(Flexible with Hours Due to Time Zones)